

Accreditation Boot Camp

CPSE is having an Accreditation Boot Camp at the 2016 conference this year. The intent of the program is to help agencies that are just starting out or are thinking about starting the process.

Subject: Starting the Process of Quality Improvement

Want to know how to start? Having trouble getting your arms around the process? Is your agency poised and committed? The 2016 Excellence Conference has a program to help you with getting off on the right foot. The Accreditation Boot Camp will feature presentations designed to assist agencies in organizing, planning, developing, and executing the self-assessment process. The following classes will prepare you and your organization to achieve accredited status:

- How deep is your bench? Building an effective and redundant accreditation team.
- Establishing the accreditation culture
- Peer team site visit 101: facilitating effective verification and validation
- How to Get Started on Your Accreditation Journey
- The Four Parts to the Self-Assessment Manual
